

Készház Építő Kft. was established in 2003, we have built more than 250 houses in the past few years. Starting from our central office of Kecskemét we have built lightweight houses or prefabricated houses in quasi the whole country.

Our employees have a great professional experience, we are working together with precise specialists proving their skills in each field of profession.

We are developing our technologies continuously, and building bigpanel prefabricated houses since 2009 made of high-grade, sorted timber.

We dispose of "ÉMI" licence warranting quality work, applies to the whole structure. In addition, we have obtained "MAKÉSZ", "MAKÉSZ - Excellent Construction Product" trademarks, committing ourselves to the technology of qualitative lightweight structure and execution.

We warrant serving our clients fully:

- consultancy

- design

- execution.

Advantages of lightweight structure and brickett houses built by Készház Építő Kft.

- fast implementation

- warranted quality, ranked by "ÉMI"

- fixed, contractual prices

- perfect heat insulation value

- energy-saving

- even 0 energy technologies

- perfect sound insulation

- environmentally friendly materials

- stable and safe structure (earthquake and storm proof)

- walls can be painted immediately (no drying period)
- fewer allergic complaint
- bigger and more useful living space deriving from slimmer structure